LOCKADEE NOMINATED

By the Republicans of the State of Iowa to Be Their Leader This Fall.

Capt. Hull, Its Chief Opponent, Takes the Second Place on the Ticket.

Gen. Dyer Declared for Supreme Judge and a Long Debate on the Liquor Question.

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 27.—Capt. [illegible] the Republican State Convention assembled this morning at 10 o'clock. The night had developed considerable enthusiasm and other elements, the leaders first, that had all this time been a coalition for Governor, though that for the most part in the background as a last resort, continued a most exhilarating form the contest. The anti-Clan party to every mind from to go to other conditions. Gen. Dyer's last speech, however, in that Clan Republican Convention was left to fight it out alone. The first vote kept up to the last the excitement of candidates, though enough to give any enterprising reporter proceeds for reporting success. There promised some astonishing corrections. Once the vote should be taken, and on that first a vote there, with Dyer and Hull out of the race, they would open of the Lockadee vote that a little scattered and considered that possibly there was some amount for each faction. When the convention was called to order by the Hon. [illegible] Chairman the Grand Commissioner from Republican Clubdom, and on taking the gavel made a stirring and eloquent speech which voiced the spirit of the convention to the very moment. Hardly had the echoes of prayer by Archbishop Ryan died away when Gen. Dyer was before a delegate secret that something seemed in the air. This time the [illegible] of the delegates who were assistants to over a congressional conference and was a close campaign, especially as secondary charges of the gravest nature had been made. They [illegible] that there was no excuse to be made for the vote had cast their first ballot. The convention was simply and timely, and in spite of the necessity of work to be done and the desire of candidates to be nominated from the platform and [illegible] the Republican convention to vote for the nomination by acclamation. Gen. Dyer was nominated by Hon. [illegible] Wilkinson of this city, who presented him in the most [illegible] of the old soldiers.

[illegible] was announced as follows, but the ballot had not proceeded far before it was evident that another ballot would be needed to determine how much for the next Governor of Iowa. [illegible] Republican masses and every way the vote for Lockadee at that time a very little counted than many polled [illegible] was over 100 votes ahead of the nominee, for during the ballot, Hull, and Gen. Dyer, Lockadee, for whom some anticipation [illegible] on votes [illegible] the friends of Capt. Hull carried that Lockadee's nomination to such an unfavorable and the [illegible] failed to organize an [illegible] which was done.

In order to recognize the active element in her town organ, Gen. Hull's name was presented to secure temporary the Lockadee's Democratic gun on account was made to [illegible] candidates but the Traitor even but to the [illegible] proposed to right there nominate the [illegible] of Glenn Hull, and was received on [illegible] Then to have other names were presented by way of [illegible] among them that of C. C. Agnew the prohibitionist candidate last year, Treasurer, a minority got the [illegible] when announced, on there [illegible] to vote on the ground of "[illegible] lackadaisy." On the following announced it was plain that the nomination was Hepburn a point of the old soldiers by Gen. [illegible] Hull, and also was done and [illegible] nominations.

The next office to be filled was that of Judge of the Supreme Court. Only in the morning there had been no open opposition to Judge Beck's renomination. He had been the office eighteen years, when the Democrats made a [illegible] Beck was Judge Given, and there [illegible] Democratic Democrats and yet he [illegible] could to confine him to the convention. The Hon. John F. Dillon, Former Union Pacific attorney, nominated him in a speech of considerable power and polish, and [illegible] by all to be one of the best ever heard in the Iowa convention. In effectiveness was done to the business which followed, for, while the having each one further warmth for the speeches, and without [illegible] that he came from a Democratic Iowa convention, Judge Dillon [illegible] of the [illegible] of the convention. Most of the [illegible] Dyer, who presided over the convention, and [illegible] of the ballot.

Although it had been said [illegible] the convention [illegible] to what the contest had been [illegible] Democrats, declaring that their report [illegible] the ballot [illegible] of the Democrats on Democratic from the Democratic Dyer, the Republican of Farmington [illegible] a seconding report such a [illegible] the convention [illegible] that on the [illegible] were [illegible] Mr. Dyer, in a [illegible] thing the party had to [illegible] which [illegible] [illegible] Democrats, and [illegible] would be [illegible] a [illegible] [illegible] a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

President Oakes in Personality Interposed with the Northern Pacific Country.

The Illinois Central's Relations with the Minnesota & Northern—Passenger Matters.

A Spirited Controversy at Delmonico—The West Shore and New York Central Row.

President S. S. Oakes of the Rock Island returned yesterday from his trip to the Pacific coast. He went to the Northern Pacific to Portland and returned via the Oregon Short Line to the Union Pacific. He spoke in glowing terms of the prospects of the Northwest when he passed. He says the country is to boom now, he assures. This is particularly the case between Portland and Yankton on the Bismarck Short Line, some of the latest country being now opened for grain and cattle raising. It is just now in demand. The Oregon Railway & Navigation Company's property he found in great order, and in much use on account of the heavy grain crops. It will pass to the Northern and Union Pacific Roads. It will pass to control over Pacific Coast traffic. It is said that the company intends to put the Union Pacific Oregon Short Line's branch to Portland into the Northern Pacific fold, if it can, and the project of building the Cascade line to Portland, for which there has been much talk, is not.

Regarding the report that the Rock Island was pursuing an interest in the Northern Pacific, with a view of controlling the latter's business at St. Paul, Mr. Oakes said that the Rock Island is a progressive road and investors, as such a company, but to assert any ulterior views of the Rock Island directors and stockholders of the company from controlling Northern Pacific management would be not. He would not be drawn into any discussion in order to protect their interests in the Northwest. As it was known that Frederick Gow had gone west some weeks to secure an interest in the Northern Pacific for the benefit of the Northwestern, and it was also claimed that the Minnesota Central people had designs on that property. It would not do for the Rock Island people to let the Northern Pacific come under the control of any of its adversaries.

It appears the exact amount of percentage of the consolidated pool the Evansville Henderson pool, and the Toledo, Peoria & Western pool are to have is not definitely settled, but the Commissioners say that no serious difficulty has arisen. They are also to have considered the agreement and question presented by the Kansas City, Fort Scott road that though a much longer line than that through a much richer country, the Rock Island has been compelled to the Consolidated pool. The old rates, with several months ago, already secured the Rock Island's protest, go into operation on both and the Kansas pool, and the new pool, as agreed the Rock Island has consented to, go into force. It is said that the Rock Island has secured a large increase in its percentage from the pool on account of the certain loss of the pool. It appears the percentage of the Toledo pool which, by the way, is said to be subject to the pool's fine and to have paid half already back for the pool.

[illegible]

Chairman Clarke of the Illinois Central says that the consolidation between that line, the Cairo Short Line, and the extension of the company's line to Memphis and Louisville, will be completed by the 1st of October. Mr. Clarke, speaking of the Illinois Central's connection with the Texas Pacific, said that the Illinois Central would be in no way connected with the Texas Pacific, but that the Texas Pacific would have a connection with the Illinois Central at Memphis. It will not, however, be under the control of the Illinois Central, but will be under the control of the Texas Pacific. The Illinois Central will have a connection with the Texas Pacific at Memphis, but will not be under the control of the Texas Pacific.
